

Louis U. Murray passed away Friday, August 24, 2007. Lou was born on March 03, 1925 in Gary, Indiana.

During the Second World War Lou Murray was trained as a pilot at Tuskegee Army Air Field as part of the all Black unit of the Army Air Corps. Lou was at Tuskegee Army Air Field starting in 1944. He graduated in Class SE-45-C on May 23, 1945 as a Flight Officer and served honorably during WW II.

After the War, Lou went to work as a crop duster and then worked for the U. S. Postal Service. In 1952, he joined the U. S. Customs Agency and attended Customs Port Investigator's School at Fort Slocum near New Rochelle, N.Y. During his service with Customs, Lou served as a Sky Marshal and on the security detail for Governor George Wallace, who at the time was running for President. In 1973 Lou was transferred to the Drug Enforcement Administration and Lou retired in 1984 in San Diego, California.